This Collective Agreement made November 2023.

between THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS, CAPE BRETON UNIVERSITY, hereinafter called the EMPLOYER, party of the first part;

and

CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 3131, hereinafter called the UNION, party of the second part.

PREAMBLE

The Cape Breton University is dedicated to the principle of continuing the traditions and objectives of its two founding institutions; St. Francis Xavier University-Sydney Campus and the Nova Scotia Eastern Institute of Technology, and pursuing new and innovative goals made possible by the unique combination of educational resources now available in the University. It is incumbent on all parties to ensure that the working agreements between Employer and employees will not inhibit the flexibility of operation necessary to achieve these aims. To these ends, responsibility for assignment of teaching schedules and job functions will continue as managerial rights. Beyond that, bargaining units already granted voluntary recognition must respect the Employer's rights to manage responsibly and effectively, and must not deliberately inhibit this right. (The emerging patterns of programs within the University already require allocations of personnel across normal lines of job function and description allocated with a given bargaining unit.) In such circumstances, no one bargaining unit can lay prior claim to the position as a position. It must be agreed between management and the bargaining units that no single unit can be granted automatic claim to all incumbents of such new, or additional, positions.

ARTICLE 1

RECOGNITION

- 1.01 The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees and its Local 3131 as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for employees in this bargaining unit.

- 1.04 The provisions of this Agreement are binding on the Employer, the Union, and the employees.
- 1.05 No Member of the Union shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer or its representatives which may conflict with the terms of this Agreement.
- 1.06 The Employer agrees to provide the Union such information relating to employees in the bargaining unit that may reasonably be required by the Union for collective bargaining purposes.
- 1.07 The Employer agrees to provide reasonable access to the University's premises to representatives of the Canadian Union of Public Employees or other advisors provided that:
- (a) such access does not interfere with the normal operations of the University;
 - (b) such access shall not include the right of such invited person to call meetings on the University's premises;
 - (c) such access is for the purpose of assisting the Union in carrying on its business as representative of members of the bargaining unit; and

ARTICLE 13

13 APPOINTMENT

13.01 Probationary Period

- (a) An employee may be appointed to a position on a probationary basis for a period of six (6) months. During the probationary period, the employee will be given an orientation to the operating systems which they are required to be proficient, in a similar manner in which current employees were re-trained (in accordance with Article 34.01) when the current system(s) was introduced or last upgraded.
- (b) The Employer may, before expiration of the employee's initial six-month period of appointment on a probationary basis, extend, with the agreement of the Union, the probationary appointment for a period not to exceed an additional six (6) months.
- (c) The probationary period shall be twelve (12) months for an employee who is not under on-site supervision due to a requirement to travel.

13.02 The Employer may terminate a probationary appointment at any time.

13.03 The Employer shall, after an employee has served in a position on a probationary basis for a period of six (6) months, except as provided in Article 13.01(b), confirm the appointment.

13.04 If the employment of an employee appointed to a position on a probationary basis is to be terminated for reasons other than deliberate misconduct or disobedience or neglect of duty, the Employer shall advise the employee, in writing, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of termination.

13.05 Where less notice in writing is given than provided for employees terminated in accordance with the provisions of Article 13.04, the employee shall continue to receive their pay for the number of days prior to the date of termination.

13.06 An employee in a position on a probationary basis shall be given reasons for termination, in writing, if they so request, within the period of notice pursuant to Article 13.04.

13.07 A current employee who is the successful applicant for another position shall be placed on a trial period for six months. The trial period shall be twelve (12) months for an employee who is not under on-site supervision due to a requirement to travel. Such trial appointment shall become regular upon completion of this period to the satisfaction of the Employer. In the event that the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the aforementioned period, or if the employee is unable to perform the duties of the new position within the trial period, the employee shall return to the employee's former position without loss of seniority and will return to that position at the same step on the salary scale as the employee was placed prior to the move.

Any other employee who is displaced as a result of the employee's return to their former position shall also revert to their former position or status without loss of seniority and will return to that position at the same step on the salary scale as where the employee was placed prior to the move.

13.08 Term Appointment

A specified term appointment may be made to replace an employee who is on extended leave of absence or for a special assignment of limited duration of no more than thirty (30) consecutive months, after which time the employer will either:

The annual work interruption for sessional positions shall not be counted when calculating consecutive months.

- 13.09 A term appointee may apply for any position opening in the bargaining unit which occurs during their term appointment. If no member of the bargaining unit applies for the job and the term appointee is successful, the period of employment in the term position will be counted as seniority with the Employer. Should they apply unsuccessfully, or not at all, for a position opening, they will have no seniority claim on any position, and they may be released at the conclusion of their term appointment.

13.10 Casual Appointment

A casual appointment is defined as:

Such temporary period of employment shall not be extended except with the consent of the Union. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any casual position, which exceeds 90 calendar days without such consent, will warrant the job being posted; or
- (b) an individual who works on an "as needed" basis and not regularly scheduled.

- 13.11 In the event that a casual employee is the successful applicant for a position in which they are currently employed, their seniority shall commence from the date of appointment to the regular bargaining unit position, but the time they have already served in that position shall be credited toward their probationary period.

13.12 Limit on Appointment

No Member of the bargaining unit shall, at any time, be employed in more than one bargaining unit position.

13.13 Notwithstanding the above a current member of the bargaining unit may be appointed to a term position in which case their original position will be held until that term appointment is finished or the employee accepts another appointment within CBU, or otherwise terminates employment with CBU, whichever occurs first.

17.15 When the Employer cancels or alters a period of vacation which it has previously approved in writing, the Employer shall reimburse the employee for the non-returnable portion of vacation contracts and reservations made by the employee in respect of that period subject to the presentation of such documentation as the Employer may require. The employee must advise the Employer of the maximum potential liability under this Article at the time the vacation change is proposed.

17.16 If, while on vacation, an employee's annual leave is interrupted because of a disabling illness or injury and all or a part of the period involves being admitted to hospital, the period of annual leave so displaced shall be counted as sick leave when medical evidence, satisfactory to the University, is provided.

19.01 Sick leave means the period of time an employee is absent from work by virtue of being sick or disabled, or because of an accident for which Workers' Compensation is not payable under the Workers' Compensation Act and as a result of which the employee is unable to perform their duties.

19.02 Regular full time, regular part-time, and regular sessional employees who were employed in that capacity prior to 19 January 2000, shall have a short term disability benefit for a period of fifteen (15) weeks (75 days) per year. This benefit shall be pro-rated for regular part-time employees. Except where an employee is on sick leave, reinstatement of the 75 day benefit shall occur April 1st of each year.

19.03 This short term benefit may be used for day-to-day incidental illness and to provide income protection during the elimination period for Long Term Disability (LTD). The elimination period starts when an employee first becomes totally disabled and ends after a period of 15 weeks of continuous total disability. If the disability is not continuous, the days the employee is disabled will be accumulated to satisfy the elimination period provided no interruption is longer than two (2) weeks and the disabilities arise from the same or related disease or injury. During the elimination period, it is the responsibility of the employee to make application for LTD benefits.

These credits shall accumulate on a pro-rated basis for regular part-time employees.
- (a) Employees hired after the signing of this Collective Agreement shall be entitled to three (3) days sick leave at the commencement of their employment and shall then earn sick leave as outlined above.
- 19.05 Regular full time, regular part-time, and regular sessional employees shall be granted sick leave with pay when the employee is unable to perform the duties of the position for the reasons described in 19.01 and provided the employee has the necessary sick leave credits.
- 19.06 An employee may be required to undergo, without cost to him/her, medical examination(s) by a physician(s) of the Employer's choice. This would normally not be required unless the employee's absences on sick leave are either frequent or prolonged. The Employer is prepared to give due consideration to an employee's concerns about the Employer's choice of physician(s).
- 19.07 Sick leave shall not apply where an employee is already on leave of absence, including vacation (except as noted under Article 17.15), holidays, or any other leave specified in this Agreement.
- 19.08 In the case of absence of an employee due to illness, the employee must notify their manager or their delegate at a reasonable time before the commencement time of their normal day's work. The leave will be for a maximum of twelve months duration and would not normally be granted for the purpose of taking employment with another employer. For leaves of less than six (6) months duration, seniority will continue to accrue during the leave. When a leave is of six (6) months or greater duration, no portion of the leave will be credited towards seniority. An employee on leave shall have their next salary increment delayed by a period equal to that of the duration of the leave and subsequent increments will be on this new date.

In the case of suspension without pay or discharge, pay previously withheld shall be paid at the end of the next complete pay period following reinstatement.

ARTICLE 24

24 LAYOFF, RECALL AND RESIGNATION

Both parties recognize that seniority shall be recognized with respect to layoff and recall as outlined in Article 39 and further that in the event of a layoff the laid-off employee shall have the right to exercise their seniority pursuant to Article 24 herein.

- 24.01 LAYOFF means a suspension of active employment, or the permanent reduction in the regular hours of work for either a regular full-time or regular part-time member of the bargaining unit, as a result of a reduction of work required to be done by the Employer. Throughout the following clauses, the use of the word "lay-off" does not refer to "annual work interruptions" for regular sessional part time employees (see Article 38.05).
- 24.02 For the purpose of this Article;
- (a) For the purpose of this article, seniority shall be as defined in Article 38.
 - (b) Job Category means a grouping or cluster of similar job categories within the bargaining unit as described herein (APPENDIX D) or amended from time to time by the parties to the agreement.

- 24.03 The Employer shall not layoff or discharge an employee who has completed their probationary period for reasons other than just cause as provided in Article 23, without having given at least:
- (a) twenty (20) days notice in writing to the employee, if the employee's period of employment is less than five (5) years;
 - (b) forty (40) days notice in writing to the employee, if the employee's period of employment is five (5) years or more, but less than ten (10) years; and
 - (c) sixty (60) days notice in writing to the employee, if the employee's period of employment is ten (10) years or more.
- 24.04 Where less notice in writing is given than provided in Article 24.03, the employee shall continue to receive pay for the number of days for which the employee was required to be in receipt of such notice.
- 24.05 The Employer will notify the Union in writing of its intent to commence the lay-off procedure for Employee(s) within the bargaining unit. Within seven (7) days of notification, the Employer will meet with representatives of the Union to discuss alternatives to such lay-off(s) and for the Union, if it wishes, to suggest alternatives to such lay-offs provided they are operationally and financially practical and effective. This information will be shared with the Union on a confidential basis in order to facilitate these discussions.
- 24.06 (a) Within seven (7) days of the meeting in 24.05, the Employer will notify the Union, in writing, of its intent to serve lay-off notice to any employee within the bargaining unit. The Employer and Union shall meet within a seven (7) day period in order to discuss the possible reassignment of employees affected by layoff. This information will be shared with the Union on a confidential basis
- (b) Notice of lay-off pursuant to Article 24.05 shall include the effective date of the lay-off and the reasons therefore and will be copied to the Union president. At the time such notice is given the Employer and the Union will discuss possible reassignment with the affected employee(s). That employee must indicate, in writing, no later than seven (7) calendar days after receiving the notice of layoff, that she/he would rather be reassigned to another position than be laid off.
- 24.07 In the event of a layoff pursuant to Article 24.06, the laid-off employee shall have the right to exercise their seniority to be reassigned to a position occupied by the least senior employee of the same status (full time, part-time) within their job category (if not in a standalone job category), for which they have the qualifications and ability to perform the duties of the position following a familiarization period, not to exceed five (5) weeks.

The Employer may consider additional options within the lay off procedure including those presented by the Union where the options are operationally practical and in accordance with the following principles:

- (i) to minimize the number of affected employees to be displaced;
- (ii) to minimize disruptions to affected employees by displacement.

In determining whether the laid off employee is so qualified and able to fill that position, the Employer will consider the laid off employee's qualifications as noted on the employee's file (the onus is on the employee to keep an up-to-date resume on file), that employee's performance in the employee's present position and the minimum requirements of the job into which the laid off employee may be reassigned. Such determination of qualifications and ability will include discussions with the supervisor for the position in question.

In all cases of reassignment, the final determination of whether an employee has demonstrated that they can perform the work after the familiarization period will be made by the Employer based on the job description and the duties contained therein. If the employee is not able to perform the duties of the job within the familiarization period the employee will be placed on lay off.

24.08 An employee who has been laid off pursuant to Article 24.06 and who was not able to be reassigned to a position within their job category pursuant to Article 24.07 and has the qualifications and experience in a job within another job category may elect to exercise their seniority to be reassigned to the position occupied by the least senior employee in that job category. In such cases, the employee will serve a familiarization period not to exceed three (3) months.

24.09 An employee who refuses the available reassignment will be placed on lay off status.

24.10 An employee who had been reassigned to another position in accordance with Article 24.07 or 24.08 will continue at the employee's existing rate of pay while assigned to this position. If the employee is assigned to a position with a higher salary scale, the placement on the new salary will be at the step that is the closest to the employee's existing rate of pay. If eligible, future increments will be made in accordance with Article 31.

24.11 (a) Employees who are laid off shall be placed on a recall list and shall be recalled for work in accordance with Article 24.11 (b). The employer shall give notice of recall in writing delivered to the employee's last recorded address. Employees are responsible for keeping the Employer informed of their current address.

(b) The recall of employees on layoff shall be in order of seniority, providing the employee has the qualifications and ability to perform the work following a familiarization period not to exceed five (5) weeks.

24.12 A regular part-time employee who is laid off may only be reassigned to another part-time position and may only be recalled to another part-time position. A regular full-time employee may voluntarily choose to be re-assigned to a regular part-time position or be recalled to a regular part-time position. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, those part-time employees who were hired before 01 January 2003 will be allowed to exercise their seniority to be reassigned to regular full-time positions within their job categories subject to Article 24.07 and 24.08.

24.13 Should an employee fail to report in response to recall within ten (10) days, the employee will be deemed to have abandoned their job.

24.14 Laid-off employees will be given the opportunity to work in casual positions provided they have the ability and qualifications to immediately perform all of the duties of the casual position. The Employer will not be held responsible for any lost opportunity for work when unable to contact an employee on layoff (only one attempt to contact shall be required). A laid-off employee who accepts casual work will be paid at the rate of pay which the employee was being paid at the time of layoff, translated into a daily or hourly rate, whichever is applicable.

Casual work will not be considered recall under this Article and taking such casual position will not alter the employee's layoff status nor require the Employer to give a new notice of layoff when the casual employment ends.

24.15 No new employee shall be hired or vacancy filled within the bargaining unit, until all employees on the recall list who have the qualifications and ability to perform the work following a familiarization period (not to exceed five weeks) have been given an opportunity to be recalled.

24.16 The lay-off shall become a termination of employment and recall rights shall lapse if the lay-off lasts form more than twelve (12) consecutive months without recall. At the end of this period, or any earlier time, an employee who has received lay-off notice wishes to terminate employment and waive recall rights, the employee shall be granted severance in the following amount:

- (a) One (1) month's pay if they have been employed for ten (10) years, but less than fifteen (15) years;
- (b) Two (2) months' pay if they have been employed for fifteen (15) years but less than twenty (20) years;
- (c) Four (4) months' pay after they have been employed for twenty (20) years.

The amount of severance shall be calculated by the formula:
bi-weekly rate x 26/12 = 1 month.

- 24.17 If an employee desires to terminate their employment, the employee shall forward a letter of resignation to the Employer or delegated official not less than ten (10) days prior to the effective date of termination, provided, however, that the Employer or delegated official may accept a shorter period of notice. An employee who fails to provide ten (10) days notice of their intention to terminate their employment may have deducted from monies owed him/her by the Employer, a sum equivalent to the salary payable to him/her for the period of notice which they failed to work. An employee who resigns/retires part way through a year will receive no pay adjustment regardless of the hours worked year to date.
- 24.18 The right of laid-off employees to benefits under this Agreement shall continue in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contracts with the benefit carriers.
- 24.19 When an employee is to be laid off, the employee shall be granted two (2) hours off during the last shift, at the discretion of the employee's supervisor, in order to attend to any personnel or pay related matters not yet settled.

ARTICLE 25

25 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 25.01 Both parties agree that it is in their interest to attempt to resolve disagreements by informal discussion.

A grievance shall be defined as a dispute or difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement.

Step One – The Informal Procedure

An employee who wishes to initiate a grievance will first discuss the concerns with the employee's immediate supervisor. Informal discussions are without prejudice.

The informal discussion stage must be completed within ten (10) days of the grievable event or ten (10) days of the date that this event could reasonably have been known by the grievor to have occurred.

When any dispute cannot be settled through the informal procedure, it shall be deemed to be a "grievance" and Step Two of the grievance procedure may be invoked.

In each of the following steps of the grievance procedure, a meeting shall be arranged with the Employer and the Union representative and the grievor. The meeting will be arranged at the earliest mutually agreeable time, and not later than the time limit provided for in the applicable step of the grievance procedure.

- 25.02 Where the grievance relates to the interpretation or application of this Collective Agreement, or an arbitral award, an employee is not entitled to present the grievance unless the employee has the approval in writing of the Union, and is represented by the Union.
- 25.03 Step Two: If the employee or the Union is not satisfied with the decision of the immediate supervisor, the employee may, within five (5) working days of receiving the decision of the immediate supervisor, present the grievance in writing to the immediate supervisor or the designate for that position. The Employer shall reply in writing to the employee within ten (10) working days from the date the grievance was presented at Step Two. If the employee does not receive a satisfactory settlement within ten (10) working days from the date on which the employee presented the grievance in writing to the immediate supervisor or the designate for that position, the employee may proceed to Step Three.

Step Three: Within ten (10) working days from the expiration of the ten-day period referred to in Step Two, the employee may present the grievance in writing to the person at the next management level for that unit/department or the designate for that position. Any proposed settlement of the grievance presented at Step Two and any replies must accompany the grievance when it is presented to the Employer.

The Employer shall reply in writing to the employee within twenty (20) working days from the date the grievance was presented at Step Three.

If the employee does not receive a reply, or satisfactory settlement of the grievance from the Employer, the employee may refer the grievance to arbitration as provided in Article 26, within fifteen (15) working days of the date on which the employee should have received a satisfactory reply from the Employer.

- 25.04 At Steps Two and Three, the employee shall be accompanied by a representative of the Union. At Steps Two and Three, the supervisor shall be accompanied by a representative from the Human Resources Department.
- 25.05 In determining the timeframe in the above steps, Saturdays, Sundays, and recognized holidays shall be excluded.
- 25.06 At the request of either party to this Agreement, it may be mutually agreed to extend the time limits specified herein. Such agreement must be in writing.
- 25.07 Where a grievance has not been submitted to arbitration by the grievor within ninety (90) working days of the first occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance, it shall be deemed to have been abandoned. For purposes of this Article, a grievance shall be considered to have been submitted to arbitration upon the appointment of the Chairperson, either by agreement or by application to the Minister of Labour.

25.08 Policy Grievance

Where either party to this Agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an article of this Agreement, the dispute shall be submitted in writing and discussed with the Director of Human Resources or the Local's President, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days of the date on which the matter giving rise to the grievance occurred. Where no satisfactory resolution of the dispute is reached, either party may within thirty (30) days of the initial discussion, submit the dispute to arbitration in accordance with Article 26 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 36

36 EXCLUSIONS

- 36.01 It is acknowledged that there is difficulty in establishing a service-wide policy for determining managerial and/or confidential exclusions.

APPENDIX A - MATERNITY LEAVE BENEFITS

UNDER SUPPLEMENTARY EMPLOYMENT BENEFIT PLAN

Purpose:

The purpose of the plan is to supplement Employment Insurance (EI) benefits paid during periods of maternity leave to all female employees of the Cape Breton University who meet the eligibility requirements.

Administration:

The University will administer the plan and, subject to the provisions of the Collective Agreements, where applicable, and the provisions contained herein, will be the only authority for determining eligibility for benefits under the plan.

Eligibility:

Any full-time permanent employee, having been employed with the University for a minimum of twelve consecutive months, who is granted maternity leave consistent in timing and duration with the Labour Standards Code of Nova Scotia, will be eligible for benefits under the plan, provided the employee has registered at and complies with the reporting requirement of the Employment Insurance Commission and qualifies under the Employment Insurance Act for EI benefits as outlined herein. Any employee commencing a second, consecutive 12-month contract will be considered a full-time permanent employee for the purpose of maternity leave eligibility. Employees must prove that they have applied for and are in receipt of EI benefits in order to receive payment under the plan. Supplementary employment benefits are payable for a period during which an employee is not in receipt of EI, if the only reason for non-receipt is that the claimant is serving the one-week waiting period.

A regular sessional employee who has been employed with the University for a minimum of twelve (12) months shall be eligible for the benefits outlined in this plan during the time they normally would be at work. A regular sessional employee is not entitled to the supplementary employment benefits for the period not normally worked.

For clarity, an employee who has sessional leave for July and August, and commences maternity leave in May shall be eligible for supplementary employment benefits during May and June, but not during July and August, and shall resume eligibility in September.

Benefit:

Based on current regulations, the supplementary employment benefit paid by the Cape Breton University will be 95% of full pay for the first-week (EI waiting period) if applicable and the University will pay an amount which, combined with the EI benefit and any other earnings from employment, will equal 95% of the employee's normal, authorized, pro-rated weekly salary from service with the University at the commencement of the maternity leave. Supplementary employment benefits will be paid up to a maximum of fifteen weeks beyond the one-week waiting period if served. All amounts paid under the plan will be subject to normal income tax deduction.

Benefit Non-entitlement:

1. Total benefits are not payable for any period in which the employee is disqualified or disentitled from receipt of benefits under the Employment Insurance Act.
2. Benefits are not payable if:
 - a) the employee has been dismissed or suspended without pay;
 - b) the employee has terminated her employment through resignation;
 - c) the employee is on approved leave of absence without pay; or
 - d) the employee is receiving insurance benefits under the University's Long Term Disability Program.

Other Restrictions:

1. Employees do not have a right to SUB payments except for the supplementation of EI benefits for the employment period as specified in this plan.
2. Payments in respect of guaranteed annual remuneration or in respect of deferred remuneration or severance pay benefits will not be reduced or increased by payments received under the plan.

Application of Benefits

When possible, an employee must give the employer at least four weeks' notice of both the date on which the leave will start and the planned date of return to work.

The employee must apply for maternity leave benefits with Service Canada. The Payroll Department will submit an EI Record of Employment to Service Canada. Following the one-week waiting period from the maternity leave date, if applicable, the supplementary employment benefit will commence. It is necessary that the employee provide the Payroll Department with a copy of the EI benefits statement to verify the amount of the weekly benefit received from EI. Upon receipt of this information, the Payroll

Department will calculate the balance of the supplementary employment benefit to be paid by the University.

Benefit deductions will continue during the period of time the employee is in receipt of the Supplementary Employment Benefit, and it is recommended that the employee continue benefit payments during the balance of the leave to ensure no interruption in enrolment in health or other benefit plans.

Parental Leave:

Employees will have access to Parental Leave as outlined in the CBU Pregnancy and Parental/Adoption Leave Policy.

ARTICLE 3 - THE JOINT JOB EVALUATION COMMITTEE (JJEC)

- 3.1 The JJEC shall have equal representation consisting of three representatives from the Employer and three representatives from the local union. A quorum for the JJEC shall be four individuals (two from each Employer and union).
- 3.2 The Employer and the union shall each designate one of its representatives to act as Co-chairperson. The Co-chairpersons are responsible for:
 - a) The chairing of Committee meetings;
 - b) The scheduling of regular Committee meetings, which includes notification of appropriate supervisors for Committee members' attendance;
 - c) Establishing the priority of matters to be acted upon by the Committee.
- 3.3 Each party will appoint an alternate representative to serve as replacements for absent members. Alternate members shall have the right to vote only when replacing a regular Committee member who is absent.
- 3.4 The Employer may provide administrative support services to the Committee. The administrative support person will be responsible for recording evaluation decisions of the Committee. The person performing these functions may or may not be a member of the Committee. These services shall be under the direction of the Co-chairs and shall include:
 - a) The distribution of all Committee correspondence to the Committee Co-chairpersons;
 - b) The preparation and distribution of meeting agendas forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting;
 - c) The preparation and distribution of minutes;
 - d) The preparation and distribution of Committee documents.

All Committee documents will be kept in the Human Resource Office. Members of the Committee will have access to such documents in the Human Resources Office during normal business hours. Official minutes of the Committee's activities (those agreed to by the parties) will be kept in the Human Resources Office.

- 3.5 The Union Committee members and any alternates appointed by the Union shall be granted leave of absence without loss of regular pay and without loss of seniority, subject to their supervisor's right to withhold permission if operational requirements dictate, for periods of time spent working on the Committee. These members shall continue to have all rights and privileges of the Collective Agreement including access to the grievance procedure, promotional opportunities and salary increments to which the employee would normally be entitled, including any increase that may occur as a result of an evaluation of their present position.
- 3.6 Job rating decisions of the Committee shall be made by consensus. It is understood that consensus does not mean unanimous agreement and that although it is desirable to have all Committee members in agreement on each rating, it is not always possible and should not hold up the process.
- 3.7 The Committee shall meet as necessary at a mutually agreed upon time and place. Each member shall receive notice along with the agenda for the meeting at least forty-eight (48) hours before the meeting. Either party may call a meeting by giving written notice and this meeting shall take place within seven (7) working days of the delivery of the notice to the other party's Co-chairperson.
- 3.8 Either party to the agreement may engage advisors to assist its representatives on the JJEC. Any such advisor shall be entitled to voice, but not to vote, and shall not be considered to be a member of the Committee.

ARTICLE 4 – MANDATE OF THE JJEC

- 4.1 The JJEC shall maintain the Gender-Neutral Job Evaluation Program by:
 - a) Evaluating all jobs in the bargaining unit (including appeals) using the job evaluation plan;
 - b) Identify the appropriate job category for the position;
 - c) Maintaining the integrity of the program;
 - d) Recommending to the parties changes to the job evaluation plan, its procedures or methods, as may be deemed necessary from time-to-time;
 - e) Recording the results and rationale on the rating sheet and complete the Advice of Rating Form. Copies of the Advice of Rating Form and job description will be provided to the JJEC, Co-chairs, incumbent(s), supervisor and the union;

- f) Keeping confidential all proceedings and deliberations of the Committee.

ARTICLE 5 – JOB EVALUATION PROCEDURE

5.1 The following general procedure shall be used to rate jobs:

Step 1 – A Job Analysis Questionnaire shall be completed by the incumbent(s) and by the supervisor. The completed questionnaire shall be submitted to the JJEC along with the copy of the current job description. The questionnaire should detail any changes to the job resulting from new or changed circumstances in the job.

Step 2 – An updated job description reflecting the current duties and responsibilities shall be prepared by Human Resources, signed by the incumbent and Manager, indicating agreement. Appended to the job description shall be the Qualifications required for the position.

Step 3 – The job shall now be rated in accordance with the job evaluation plan. The Committee shall also identify the appropriate job category for the position. The Committee shall use information obtained from the completed questionnaire, job description, interviews with the incumbent(s) and/or supervisor and, if required, visits to the workplace. The plan evaluates the skill, effort, responsibility and working conditions involved in the job. Each of these factors is subdivided into sub factors which provide a standard against which each job is rated to determine its relative worth.

Step 4 – When the Committee rates a job, it will provide the supervisor and the incumbent(s) with the Advice of Rating Form (Appendix B).

5.2 In the application of the job evaluation plan, the following general rules shall apply:

- a) It is the content of the job and not the performance of the incumbent(s) that is being rated;
- b) Jobs are evaluated without regard to existing wage rates;
- c) Jobs are placed at the appropriate degree level in each sub factor by comparing the specific requirements of the job to the sub factor definition and the description of each degree level plus benchmarking;
- d) The job analysis and rating of each job shall be relative to and consistent with the job descriptions ratings of all other jobs rated under the plan;
- e) No interpolation of sub factor degrees (i.e. mid-points) is permitted;
- f) The factors and sub factors must have an impact on jobs being rated;

- g) Overall rating decisions shall include a sore-thumbing process before finalizing to ensure consistency in Committee decisions;
- h) A Committee member shall not rate his or her own job, the position of a direct subordinate or any position where the rating of that job may place him or her in a conflict of interest situation.

5.3 Job Evaluation Procedure for New Jobs

Whenever the Employer wishes to establish a new job within the bargaining unit, the following procedures shall apply:

- a) The Employer shall prepare a provisional job description for the job;
- b) The newly created position within the bargaining unit shall be provisionally rated before applicants are recruited.
- c) The Employer agrees to provide the President of the Union with a copy of a job description of all new jobs created within the bargaining unit and their provisional rating;
- d) Six (6) months after appointment to the job, the incumbent(s) and the supervisor shall complete a Job Analysis Questionnaire. The questionnaire shall be submitted along with the finalized job description to the JJEC. The JJEC shall establish the appropriate job rating according to the procedure set out in these Terms of Reference. At this time the incumbent's provisional rate will be adjusted if necessary.
- e) If the pay grade decreases as a result of the six-month review, the employee's salary shall be adjusted to step level of the correct classification that is closest to, but higher than, the individual's salary. If the provisional salary is higher than the salary range for the correct classification, the employee's salary shall be adjusted to the highest step level of the correct classification. If the incumbent was a member of the bargaining unit in another position, they may return to their former position as per the Collective Agreement. If the member does not choose to remain in the position at the new rate, the job will be reposted.

5.4 Job Evaluation Procedure for Changed Jobs

Where a position undergoes a substantive change in job duties or responsibilities, an employee or Manager may request review of the classification by contacting Human Resources.

- a) Human Resources shall prepare a provisionally rated job description. The position shall be evaluated using the regular procedure (Article 5) in approximately six (6) months, unless the Manager and employee request a deferral of up to four (4) months.
- b) If the provisional job rating is in a salary band higher than the employee's current rate of pay, their placement on the new salary scale shall be determined by the collective agreement.

ARTICLE 6 - APPEAL PROCEDURE

- 6.1 An employee or supervisor who considers himself/herself improperly classified may request review of their classification by submitting Job Evaluation Appeal Form (Appendix "C") within thirty (30) days of receiving the Advice of Rating Form.
- 6.2 The incumbent or the supervisor shall submit a Job Evaluation Appeal Form (Appendix C), stating the reason(s) for disagreement with the classification and providing substantiating information. The Appeal Form will identify specific factor(s) that are the subject of the disagreement.
- 6.3 The JJEC shall meet no later than sixty (60) days upon receipt of the Job Evaluation Appeal Form.
- 6.4 The JJEC shall reconsider the information provided. Where further information is required, interviews may be held with incumbent(s) and/or the supervisor and/or visits to the workplace.
- 6.5 The Committee shall reconsider the rating of the factor(s) requested and may also review other factors.
- 6.6 The JJEC shall make a decision which shall be final and binding upon the parties and all employees affected. The Committee shall inform the employee and manager of the final decision by completion of Appendix "D", Job Evaluation Appeal Decision Form. These decisions are not subject to arbitration or review by any third party.

ARTICLE 7 – SETTLEMENT OF DISAGREEMENTS WITHIN THE JJEC

- 7.1 Except for classification decisions in Articles 5 or 6, in the event the JJEC is unable to reach agreement on any matter relating to the interpretation, application or administration of the Joint Job Evaluation Program, the Co-chairpersons of the Committee shall request, within ten (10) working days, that each party designate an advisor to meet with the Committee and attempt to assist in reaching a decision.

If, after meeting with the two (2) advisors appointed pursuant to Article 7.1, the Committee remains unable to agree upon the matter in dispute, the Co-chairpersons shall advise, in writing, the union and the Employer of this fact, within fifteen (15) working days.

- 7.2 Either party may, by written notice to the other party, refer the dispute to a single mediator/arbitrator (recognized expert in the field of job evaluation) who shall be selected by agreement of the parties.
- 7.3 The mediator/arbitrator shall make a recommendation on the matter upon which the JJEC has been unable to agree. The mediator/arbitrator shall be bound by these Terms of Reference and the Job Evaluation Plan and shall not modify or amend any of their provisions. The decision of the mediator/arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties.
- 7.4 The mediator's/arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be borne equally between the parties.
- 7.5 The time limits contained in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

ARTICLE 8 – APPLYING THE RATING TO THE SALARY RANGES

- 8.1 Job ratings serve to:
 - a) group jobs having relatively equivalent point values (this is commonly referred to as banding);
 - b) provide the basis upon which wage rate relations between jobs are established;
 - c) measure changes in job content;
 - d) assign jobs to their proper pay grade in the salary schedule.
- 8.2 The total point allocation shall be used to determine the salary range for the jobs based on mutually agreed upon salary structure/banding.
- 8.3 The Employer retains the right to change the job duties of a green-circled position. If the change in job duties results in a re-evaluation of the position and the new points associated with the position result in the green-circle being lifted, the incumbent will be provided with the new salary associated with the change of points.

Once the incumbent leaves the green-circled position, that position will be filled at the weighted salary derived from the application of the JJE system.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #1

CAPE BRETON UNIVERSITY
and
CAPE BRETON UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 3131

WITHOUT PREJUDICE/WITHOUT PRECEDENT

Re: Students

- (a) Students may be hired as student employees provided such employment does not cause the lay-off of any employee in the bargaining unit, or prevent the recall, of any laid off employee in the bargaining unit.
- (b) Students may assist the bargaining unit employees in the performance of their duties, and may work independently on assigned tasks. If the Union feels that the use of student employees is inappropriate (such as performing work for which they are not qualified), or the number of student employees or hours has increased significantly, the parties shall meet to discuss the matter. The concerns presented by the Union will be given due consideration.
- (c) The Employer may hire students who are engaged in a recognized work/study program at a school or university whose course of study requires or permits the student to participate in study-related work programs as an integral part of a degree or diploma requirement. The Employer will inform the Union when such employment is going to occur.
- (d) The rates of pay as defined in the Collective Agreement shall not apply to students unless they are specifically called in to fill in for an individual within the bargaining unit who is sick or on vacation, in which case the “casual rate” will apply for the specific day(s). For greater clarity, students will not normally be called in to replace a member of the bargaining unit who is sick or on vacation unless there are no “casuals” readily available.
- (e) Other opportunities for students to be employed not specifically contemplated herein will require prior consultation and consent of the Union. Such consent will not be unreasonably withheld.
